CONSIDERING STANFORD'S LOSS...

last weekend to UCLA, we must give credit to President JOHN KIDD for his upbeat demeanor. He must have read the Mercury News comment that this loss was the perfect medicine (get tough pills) for post-season play.

Myra

Among our guests* (the spelling of whose names will remain a mystery) we were honored to have Myra Daly, daughter of our speaker and fellow member, JOSEPH JEDD. Visiting Rotarians (whose names appear on little pieces of paper) included Ozhan Ozsahin, an IT Consultant and Rotary Director from Istanbul; Chris Verrill, an Internet Marketer from Pacifica; George Paulsen, a CPA from Belmont; and John Donohue, an Economist from Orange, Connecticut.

HAL MICKELSON gave Opening Remarks and eloquently related the story of the Pulitzer Prize winning book, "A Bell For Adano" by John Hersey. Hal politely and 'literaturely' reminded us that people need and desire spiritual motivation and that we do not live by bread, or money, alone.

Speaking of smelling the roses. Mark your calendar for our special guided tour of the Filoli Gardens and mansion on April 21st from 1:30 - 3:30 PM with a reception to follow. Filoli is a property of the National Trust for Historic Preservation and is considered one of the finest examples of the "Golden Age of American Gardens."

KEN WEIGEL has an exciting opportunity for three Rotarians to host members of the Group Study Exchange from India on April 8 & 9. For two dinners and two breakfasts you can enhance your home with discussion from around the world and make new International friends. Call Ken at 650-323-7441.

OUR SPEAKER TODAY once again reminds us of the incredible diversity and life experiences of the members of the Palo Alto Rotary. JOSEPH JEDD was a member of the Polish Underground and an Intelligence Officer during World War II behind enemy lines. During his talk, and through the question and answer period, he did not - or would not - talk about his personal contribution or triumphs. What a perfect example of the selfless commitment that characterized the victory of democracy over totalitarianism.
